

watch the news - play your empathy chord have a smoke - remember you bored Sweetheart quit lyin' to yourself you think the whole world's got to know me as i am for me to give a damn you've got to give a damn about yourself cities quake - tidal waves hit the shore in your room - it's no more as before

you think the whole world's got to understand your heart for you to make a start you've got to make a start all by yourself dreams that you cherish in your mind are dreams that you wake up from and can't even find cause what was in your mind has vanished

just like your forgotten dreams time can wait - because time cannot lose as for space - it shapes how you choose Sweetheart quit lyin' to yourself

i think that who you care to recognize will smile and once you start to smile you'll see others smiling like yourself

'QUIT LYIN' TO YOURSELF'
